Importance: High

Mike,

A failure in the storm drain piping has been found on N. Mill Road, north of Landis Avenue. This situation has worsened and I feel that this constitutes an emergency condition requiring action within the immediate future to avoid collapse and potential harm to the public.

I waited a little longer to see if I would get quotes from the two other contractors I contacted, but I haven't gotten quotes from them.

The per linear foot price for the piping is high compared to historical pricing, but we have found that supply issues have driven these prices up. I feel that the pricing is fair and that the completion of this work before the fall rainy season is vital.

Very truly yours,

David J. Maillet, P.E.
