FN16 11.5 inch Pro-H carbine rifle

-The FN16 11.5 inch Pro-H carbine rifle is uniquely distinguishable because it is one of only two rifles with a completely ambidextrous lower assembly which allows for ease of use without further modifications. The other company, Knight's Armament, offers the same flexibility with a $2,500 per rifle cost as opposed to the $1,698.70 cost of the FN.

-The rifle also comes with additional accessories such adjustable iron sights and a special collapsible stock at the same price that other manufacturers charge extra for ($200 per rifle savings).

-Atlantic Tactical is the sole distributor for FN Rifles for The State of NJ under state government contract.
