1. BACKGROUND: Ionut Ciprian Malaescu formed ICM Logistic, Limited Liability Company (“ICM”) on April 6, 2015 in the State of New Jersey, a business operating company involved in the ownership and leasing of trucks and tractor trailers providing logistics services. ICM is located at 2708 N. Delsea Drive, Vineland, NJ and provides refrigerated and non-refrigerated hauling services to customers along the Eastern United States. In addition, Mr. Malaescu is also the 100% owner of ICM Logistix, LLC (“ICMX”), a freight/trucking brokerage operating company, located at the same address. Mr. Malaescu purchased 2708 N. Delsea Drive, Vineland, NJ, an industrial zoned parcel (I-B) comprised of land and masonry building, in January 2023 for $200,000.00, to move the operation of his logistics company. ICM currently owns and operates six trucks and twelve trailers. He currently owns the subject property in personal name, however, he is forming a real estate holding company, which he will own 100% to transfer ownership. Prior to moving to Vineland, the companies operated from a leased location in Mullica Hill, NJ.

Mr. Malaescu, 39 years of age, immigrated to the United States when he was 23 years of age from Romania. He attended Rutgers University and graduated with a Bachelor’s Degree in Business Administration. He works as a manager for ParkPlace Parking, a parking services contractor in Atlantic City, where he manages several large parking lots and parking garage operations. He employs a manager to oversee ICM on a daily basis, however he is involved in its operation and management. In addition to the general manager, he employs an operations manager, a full time and a part time mechanic, and an office associate. The truck drivers employed as subcontractors.

Mr. Malaescu is desirous of converting the existing building location and addition to the property of +- 9,600 sq. ft. providing for the expansion of the current facility to include an expanded truck terminal for maintenance and service of trucks along with dispatch office. He plans adding thirteen truck spaces and twelve employee spaces. Mr. Malaescu utilized personal funds to purchase the property and to invest in trucks and equipment. He currently owns the subject property outright and carries no long-term debt on the books. The City of Vineland Planning Board and Cumberland County Planning Board approved his site plan in October of 2023.

1a. PROJECT: The request is for a commercial, development-permanent loan through Vineland Revolving Loan Fund, LLC in the total amount of $625,000, interest only for 1 year to complete the conversion of existing building and the addition of a trucking terminal and service/repair facility. Total project cost is +-$1,175,000 when including acquisition and soft costs. Site costs increased significantly. The breakdown is as follows:

Description	Uses - Amount	%	Sources - Amount	%

The first draw on the VRLF loan in the amount of $25,000 will be for reimbursement to Borrower for land clearing in the amount of $20,000.00 and closing costs of $5,000. Thereafter, the second draw will be in the minimum amount of $150,000.00 for site work, soft costs and utility connections. The remaining $450,000 will be disbursed over three (3) remaining draws (with inspections based on a draw schedule prepared by VRLF in coordination with American Property Reports, LLC, providing inspection services prior to draws being disbursed). VRLF's loan will originate as a 1-year development loan in the total amount of $625,000 with pricing at an interest rate of 6.25%, and monthly interest-only payments based on the outstanding principal balance.
